THE ANDOVER NEWTON BULLETIN

Vol. 48. April, 1956 No. 4.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

1956 MAY 29 AM 9 26

Every five years the Andover Newton Theological School publishes a list of recommended books primarily for ministers and also for interested laity. It is hoped that it will serve as a guide for reading and that it will also encourage selective book buying. This list is not prepared for research scholars but rather for general parish work. This bibliography has been prepared by the members of the faculty. More detailed lists including foreign books may be obtained by applying to the professors in the various departments.

Some of the prices may not be correct, but great pains have been taken to make this list as accurate as possible. Prices for books published in England are not listed. Where such issues are handled by an American firm this information has been included. Books that are known to be out of print are marked "o.p.".

The editors wish to express their appreciation to Dr. John H. Scammon, Professor of Old Testament and Hebrew, for assembling the material in this issue and for his own contributions to the section on the Bible and Biblical Interpretation. Also we are grateful to each member of the faculty for the valuable time spent in compiling this information for the benefit of our readers.

For further information in connection with this bibliography please address all communications to Dr. John H. Scammon, 210 Herrick Road, Newton Centre 59, Massachusetts.

THEOLOGICAL BIBLIOGRAPHIES

A question which every parish minister faces is, Which books shall I borrow from libraries, and which ones shall I buy? Some buy the books which they should borrow, and borrow the ones they should buy. Some clutter their shelves with ephemeral works — volumes which won't even be known by name a few years hence. Many, on the other hand, buy permanent works which continue to enrich their lives and provide a constant source of inspiration.

In buying, ministers would do well to patronize not only the publishers and their local bookstores, but also the large religious bookstores which handle used books. Three, out of many, which offer large resources and excellent services are: Alec R. Allenson, Inc., 81 West Van Buren Street, Chicago 5, Illinois; Baker's Book House, 1019 Wealthy Street, S. E., Grand Rapids, 6, Michigan; and Kregel's Book Store, 525 Eastern Avenue, S. E., Grand Rapids 6, Michigan. There are so many in New York City that it would hardly be feasible to list them.

Buying directly from firms in England is much slower but often results in great savings because of the rate of exchange. Many English booksellers welcome American trade. One member of the editorial committee has had excellent results in dealing with the following firms: B. H. Blackwell, Broad Street, Oxford, England; James Thin, South Bridge, Edinburgh, Scotland; and Ian Michell, 29 Lower Brook Street, Ipswich, Suffolk, England.

It should be remembered that the following libraries are prepared to send books by mail:

THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL LIBRARY

53 Mt. Vernon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

(Will send books to ministers and certain other qualified individuals anywhere in New England, and to ministers beyond New England.)

THE CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY

14 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

(Will send anywhere in the United States, regardless of borrower's denomination or profession.)

ZION RESEARCH LIBRARY

120 Seaver Street, Brookline 46, Mass.

(Will send anywhere in the United States; specializes in books on the Bible and in church history.)

THE BIBLE AND BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION
THE ENTIRE BIBLE

I. PERIODICALS

The Biblical Archaeologist. New Haven, Conn.: The American Schools of Oriental Research. $1 per year. A small but first-class quarterly which will keep one informed on archaeology.

The Expository Times. Scribner. $3.50 per year. A monthly magazine with many fine Biblical articles and book reviews.

Interpretation. Richmond, Va.: Union Theological Seminary. $3 per year. An excellent magazine filled with articles and reviews in the field of Biblical theology.

II. TOOLS FOR STUDY

TEXTS IN ENGLISH

The Holy Bible, Revised Standard Version (Nelson, 1952) is now the standard study Bible. Various prices.

Protestant ministers should also know the new Catholic translation of the Bible which is being made under the auspices of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. Members of the Catholic Biblical Association have already translated, from the original languages, a large share of the Bible; and the St. Anthony Guild Press, Paterson, N. J., has thus far published the New Testament and two volumes of the Old (Vol. 1, Gen.-Ruth; Vol. 3, Job-Sirach). The Old Testament is translated into everyday English and is not only accurate but exciting. $5 per volume for the Old Testament set.

Note should be made here also of the issuing in 1955, by the Jewish Publication Society, of a new and most attractive printing of its 1917 translation of The Holy Scriptures (Old Testament). The format is admirable in every way.

COMPARE ALSO:

The Basic Bible. Dutton, 1950. $5.

KNOX, RONALD, tr. The Old Testament. Sheed and Ward, 1948-50. 2 vols.
The New Testament. Sheed and Ward, 1944. $15 for the set.

MOFFATT, JAMES, tr. A New Translation of the Bible; rev. ed. Harper, 1935. $4.

SMITH, J. M. P., and GOODSPEED, E. J., eds. The Complete Bible, An American Translation (with Apocrypha). Univ. of Chicago, 1939. $4.50.

OTHER TOOLS:

BARTON, G. A. Archaeology and the Bible; 7th ed. American Sunday-School Union, 1937. o.p. Long a standard volume, with translations of inscriptions.

FINEGAN, JACK. Light from the Ancient Past. Princeton Univ., 1946. $7.50. An excellent, more recent book which complements the preceding.

MILLER, M. S., and MILLER, J. L. Harper's Bible Dictionary. Harper, 1952. $7.95. Excellently illustrated and very helpful.

RICHARDSON, ALAN, ed. A. Theological Word Book of the Bible. Macmillan, 1951. $3.50. Very useful.

SMITH, G. A. The Historical Geography of the Holy Land; 25th ed. Harper, 1931. o.p.

STRONG, JAMES. The Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible. Abingdon; copyright, 1890. Many reprints. $11.50.

The Westminster Dictionary of the Bible; ed. by J. D. Davis; rev. by H. S. Gehman. Westminster, 1944. $5.

WRIGHT, G. E., and FILSON, F. V. The Westminster Historical Atlas to the Bible. Westminster, 1945. $5. Invaluable. A new edition is being planned.

YOUNG, ROBERT. Analytical Concordance to the Bible; 20th American ed. rev. throughout by W. B. Stevenson. Funk and Wagnalls; 1st ed., 1879; many revisions and reprints. $11. The revision with the supplement by Albright on archaeology is recommended.

Editorial note: Abingdon's next big project after the completion of The Interpreter's Bible is a six-volume Bible Dictionary, entitled, The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible.

III. GENERAL WORKS

BRUNNER, EMIL. The Divine-Human Encounter. Westminster, 1943. o.p.

BURROWS, MILLAR. What Mean These Stones? American Schools of Oriental Research, 1941. o.p. Good for details on many sites.

CHASE, M. E. The Bible and the Common Reader; rev. ed. Macmillan, 1952. $4.

COLWELL, E. C. The Study of the Bible; rev. ed. Univ. of Chicago, 1937. $3.50. Topical.

CUNLIFFE-JONES, HUBERT. The Authority of the Biblical Revelation. Pilgrim, 1948. $2.50.

DODD, C. H. The Bible Today. Cambridge Univ., 1947. $2.50.

DUGMORE, C. R., ed. The Interpretation of the Bible. Macmillan, 1944. o.p.

GRANT, R. M. The Bible in the Church; rev. ed. Macmillan, 1954. $2.75. Historical.

KENYON, F. G. The Text of the Greek Bible. Allenson, 1937. $2.50.

KIERKEGAARD, S. For Self-Examination and Judge for Yourselves! Princeton Univ., 1944. $3.50.

MCCOWN, C. C. The Ladder of Progress in Palestine. Harper, 1943. $3.50. Chronological.

PRICE, I. M. The Ancestry of Our English Bible; 3d rev. ed. by W. A. Irwin and A. P. Wikgren. Harper, 1956. $4. Complete, authoritative, up-to-date, with first-class illustrations.

ROBINSON, H. W., ed. The Bible in its Ancient and English Versions. Oxford Univ., 1940. $5.

STEINMUELLER, J. E. A Companion to Scripture Studies. Wagner, 1941-43. 3 vols. $10. Standard Roman Catholic treatment, with full bibliographies of Protestant and Catholic works.

IV. THEOLOGY

BRIGHT, JOHN. The Kingdom of God. Abingdon, 1953. $3.75.

BURROWS, MILLAR. An Outline of Biblical Theology. Westminster, 1946. $3.50.

FOSDICK, H. E. A Guide to Understanding the Bible. Harper, 1938. $3.50.

MINEAR, P. S. Eyes of Faith. Westminster, 1946. $3.50.

Studies in Biblical Theology; ed. by T. W. Manson, H. H. Rowley, F. V. Filson, and G. E. Wright. Allenson, 1950- . $1.25 each, except for no. 15, which is $1.50. An excellent series.

TILLICH, PAUL. Biblical Religion and the Search for Ultimate Reality. Univ. of Chicago, 1955. $2.25.

V. COMMENTARIES.

One-volume commentaries on the Bible are not adequate for the seminary-trained man. In general, the purchase of single volumes of commentaries will be found more profitable than the buying of an entire set. The Interpreter's Bible (Abingdon, 1951-), like all sets, is uneven and will supplement rather than replace the other standard works. For recommendations on specific Biblical books see section Commentaries under Old Testament and New Testament.

THE OLD TESTAMENT

I. TOOLS FOR STUDY

BROWN, FRANCIS; DRIVER, S. R.; and BRIGGS, C. A. A. Hebrew and English Lexicon of the Old Testament. Oxford Univ., 1907. $16.80.

HAHN, H. F. The Old Testament in Modern Research. Muhlenberg, 1954. $4. A synoptic view.

KRAELING, E. G. The Old Testament since the Reformation. Harper, 1956. $5. The Old Testament in modern Christian thought.

MILLER, M. S., and MILLER, J. L. Encyclopedia of Bible Life. Harper, 1944. $5.95. A well-illustrated, useful reference work.

THE NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY. Everyday Life in Ancient Times. The Society, 1951. $5. Covers life in Greece, Rome, Mesopotamia, and Egypt by way of fine imaginative illustrations.

OESTERLEY, W. O. E. and ROBINSON, T. H. An Introduction to the Books of the Old Testament. Macmillan, 1934. $2.50.

PEDERSEN, JOHANNES. Israel, Its Life and Culture; tr. by A. MØLLER and A. I. FAUSBØLL. Oxford Univ., 1926-40. 4 vols. in 2. $19.20 for the set. There is no better work for the understanding of Hebrew life and thought.

PFEIFFER, R. H. Introduction to the Old Testament; rev. ed. Harper, 1948. $5. An outstanding piece of work; the most comprehensive introduction in English. It contains much additional material on the canon and text.

PRITCHARD, J. B., ed. The Ancient Near East in Pictures. Princeton Univ., 1954. $20. Expensive but very valuable.

SAME. Ancient Near Eastern Texts Relating to the Old Testament; 2d ed. Princeton Univ., 1955. $17.50. The standard work on the subject; the work in each case is done by top experts.

ROBERTS, B. J. The Old Testament Text and Versions. Univ. of Wales, 1951. Available at Allenson's for $5. Best English survey; some inaccuracies.

ROWLEY, H. H., ed. The Old Testament and Modern Study. Oxford Univ., 1952. $4. Survey of scholarly study over the last quarter of a century. Extremely valuable.

RYLE, H. E. The Canon of the Old Testament; rev. ed. Macmillan, 1909. o.p.

WILSON, EDMUND. The Scrolls from the Dead Sea. Oxford Univ., 1955. $3.25. Exciting account of the finds, by an informed amateur whose conclusions are sometimes erratic.

III. HISTORY, INCLUDING THE HISTORY OF ISRAEL'S RELIGION

ALBRIGHT, W. F. Archaeology and the Religion of Israel; 2d. ed. Johns Hopkins Univ., 1953. $3.50. By a great authority.

SAME. From the Stone Age to Christianity; 2d ed. Johns Hopkins Univ., 1946. o.p.

JAMES, FLEMING. Personalities of the Old Testament. Scribner, 1939. $6; text ed., $4. Excellent; history in the form of biographies.

LESLIE, ELMER. Old Testament Religion. Abingdon, 1936. o.p. Good on Canaanite background.

LODS, ADOLPHE. Israel from its Beginnings to the Middle of the Eighth Century; tr. by S. H. Hooke. Knopf, 1932. $6.75.

LOEHR, MAX. A History of the Religion of Israel. Scribner, 1936. o.p.

MEEK, T. J. Hebrew Origins; rev. ed. Harper, 1950. $3. The origin of the various social and religious institutions of the Hebrew people.

OESTERLEY, W. O. E., and ROBINSON, T. H. Hebrew Religion; rev. ed. Macmillan, 1937. $2. Dated; based on the animistic approach.

SAME. A History of Israel. Oxford Univ., 1932. 2 vols. $3.40 per vol. A fine presentation.

Olmstead, A. T. History of Palestine and Syria. Scribner, 1931. o.p. By an authority in this field.

Smith, W. R. The Religion of the Semites; 3d ed. with introduction by Stanley Cook. Black, 1927. o.p.

Wardle, W. L. The History and Religion of Israel. Oxford Univ., 1936. $1.40. This is Vol. 1 in the Clarendon Bible series; compact and very useful.

THEOLOGY

I. PERIODICALS

Ecumenical Review. N. Y.: The World Council of Churches. $3 per year. Quarterly.

Scottish Journal of Theology. Edinburgh: Oliver Boyd. 19 shillings post free per year. Quarterly.

Theology Today. Princeton, N. J.: Theology Today. $3. per year. Quarterly.

II. BOOKS

AULEN, GUSTAF. The Faith of the Christian Church; tr. by E. H. Wahlstrom and G. E. Arden. Muhlenberg, 1948. $5. A typical if rather conventional digest of Lutheran doctrine, modified somewhat by neo-orthodox influence; concisely and plainly written.

BAILLIE, D. M. God Was in Christ. Scribner, 1936. $2.75. A sane and useful volume, gathering up much of the best thought of our century on the problems of the Incarnation and the Atonement.

BARTH, KARL. The Doctrine of the Word of God. Scribner, 1936. $7.50. A characteristic work, though more cautious and learned than Barth's shorter books; provides a fine glimpse into the theologian's study and classroom.

SAME. Dogmatics in Outline. Philosophical Library, 1949. $3.75. Patterned on the Apostles' Creed like the author's earlier Credo, this short but meaty volume has already proved itself a valuable help to many pastors.

BRUNNER, EMIL. The Christian Doctrine of God. Westminster, 1950. $6. This first volume of the Zurich thinker's systematic theology emphasizes primarily God's transcendent holiness, and is good on theological method and working principles as well.

SAME. Revelation and Reason. Westminster, 1946. $5. A careful, complete statement on the central problem in Brunner's thought, written with dialectical skill and theological penetration.

CALVIN, JOHN. A Compend of the Institutes of the Christian Religion; ed. by H. T. Kerr, Jr. Westminster, 1939. $3.50. A most convenient reference book, both for those who already know Calvin's thought and for those who desire to make themselves acquainted with it.

FERRÉ, N. F. S. Faith and Reason. Harper, 1946. $2.75. Helpful for all who are puzzled by the bearing of Christian thinking upon the "circles" of science and philosophy; at once inclusive and incisive.

HAZELTON, ROGER. The God We Worship. Macmillan, 1946. $2. Readable, vigorous, and extremely helpful attempt to give both appetite for the task outlined and also the aptitude for carrying it out.

SAME. The Root and Flower of Prayer. Macmillan, 1943. o.p. A sensitive student of prayer and master of public worship here gives down-to-earth, practical help in this vital field.

HORDERN, WILLIAM. A Layman's Guide to Protestant Theology. Macmillan, 1955. $3.50. A useful and readable volume, which gives a balanced account of the major stresses and tensions within present-day theology; intended primarily for laymen.

HORTON, W. M. Christian Theology, An Ecumenical Approach. Harper, 1955. $3.75. Valuable primarily for its study of contrasting viewpoints on various doctrinal issues; especially good in brief exposition and comparison, although it frequently fails to find the ecumenical "consensus" that is sought.

KIERKEGAARD, S. Concluding Unscientific Postscript; tr. by D. F. Swenson and Walter Lowrie. Princeton Univ., 1941. $8.50. The basic work on the problem of religious knowledge, by the founder of modern "existentialism"; difficult but very rewarding.

LUTHER, MARTIN. A Compend of Luther's Theology; ed. by H. T. Kerr, Jr. Westminster, 1943. o.p. Indispensable for the Protestant minister's study and preaching.

MACKINTOSH, H. R. Types of Modern Theology. Scribner, 1937. $4. Among the clearest and fairest expositions of thinkers from Schleiermacher to Barth.

NIEBUHR, REINHOLD. The Nature and Destiny of Man. Scribner, 1941-43. Now published in a one-vol. ed. for $5. The most profound work on a major topic by an American theologian. Vol. II is a genuine advance over Vol. I, but both repay careful study.

NYGREN, ANDERS. Agape and Eros; tr. by P. S. Watson. Westminster, 1953. $7. A very fruitful if one-sided treatment of Christian love, wihch has provoked much discussion and thought by many first-rate minds.

PASCAL, BLAISE. Pensées and The Provincial Letters. Random House, 1941, in the Modern Library series. $1.45. The most notable contribution by any lay-theologian to the enterprise of Christian thinking, cast in stimulating and very skilful form.

TILLICH, PAUL. Systematic Theology. Vol. 1. Univ. of Chicago, 1951. $5.50. Essential for an understanding of the newer currents in theology, since Tillich both reworks and reacts to the so-called "neo-orthodox" position, and attempts a large-scale Summa Theologica for our own time.

PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION

CASSIRER, ERNST. The Philosophy of the Enlightenment. Beacon, 1955. $1.45, in paper covers. The German scholar-historian-philosopher opens up the ideas and intellectual climate of the "Enlightenment."

CASSERLY, J. V. L. Graceful Reason. Seabury, 1954. $2.75. With full confidence in reason. Dr. Casserly defines its place in the experience of religion.

HAZELTON, ROGER. On Proving God. Harper, 1952. $2.50. A persuasive and earnest argument for a more serious consideration of the proofs of God's existence.

LANDSBERG, P. L. The Experience of Death [and] The Moral Problem of Suicide; tr. by Cynthia Rowland. Philosophical Library, 1953, $2.50. Two essays of very great insight into the phenomenology of death and suicide.

MACQUARRIE, JOHN. An Existentialist Theology. Macmillan, 1955. $3.75. Excellent comparison of Heidegger and Bultmann in relation to the Christian understanding of man.

MARCEL, GABRIEL. The Mystery of Being. Regnery, 1951. 2 vols. $3.75 per vol. The Gifford Lectures by the French Catholic philosopher, patiently elucidating the profounder existential aspects of reality.

PICARD, MAX. Flight from God. Regnery, 1951. $2.50. A bold, impressionistic portrayal of the mass flight of modern man from God.

TILLICH, PAUL. Biblical Religion and the Search for Ultimate Reality. Univ. of Chicago, 1955. $2.25. Dr. Tillich's provocative answer to his critics who have raised the issue of his correlation between philosophy and revelation.

SAME. Love, Power, and Justice. Oxford Univ., 1954. $2.50. A basic reinterpretation of the relationships and meaning of these three categories of ethics.

WEIL, SIMONE. Gravity and Grace; tr. by Arthur Wills. Putnam, 1952. $3.50.

SAME. Waiting for God; tr. by Emma Craufurd. Putnam, 1951. $3.50. An extraordinary mind with incisive sharpness penetrates the modern religious problem with clarity and severe earnestness.

WOLFSON, H. A. The Philosophy of the Church Fathers. Vol. 1, Faith, Trinity, and Incarnation. Harvard Univ., 1956. $10. A remarkably thorough investigation of the relation of faith and reason in the early leaders of the church beginning with Paul.

CLASSICS OF CHRISTIAN DEVOTION

ANDREWES, LANCELOT. Private Devotions. Abingdon publishes a good ed. for $1.25.

AUGUSTINE, ST. Confessions. Many editions. Nelson Classics, $.95; Pocket Books, $.35.

FRANCIS OF ASSISSI, ST. The Little Flowers; tr. by James Rhoades. World's Classics (Oxford Univ.), $1.25.

The Imitation of Christ. Many editions; Grosset has an excellent pocket ed. for $.75, and Penguin Classics one for $.65.

KELLY, T. R. A Testament of Devotion. Harper, 1951. $1.

LAW, WILLIAM. Serious Call to a Devout and Holy Life. British Book Centre, $1.50; Westminster publishes it under the editorship of John Meister and others for $2.50.

LAWRENCE, BROTHER. The Practice of the Presence of God. Many editions: Templegate Publishers, $.35; Morehouse, $.50; Revell, $.35 and $1.

MILLER, S. H. The Great Realities. Harper, 1955. $2.50.

PASCAL, BLAISE. Pensées and The Provincial Letters. Good ed. in the Modern Library series for $1.45.

RAUSCHENBUSCH, WALTER. Prayers of the Social Awakening. Pilgrim, 1909. o.p.

STEERE, DOUGLAS. On Beginning from Within. Harper, 1943. $1.75.

Theologia Germanica; ed. by T. S. Kepler, World Publishing Co., 1952. $1.50.

WOOLMAN, JOHN. Journal. Regnery publishes a paperback ed. for $.75. World Publishing Co. has one in stiff covers, ed. by T. S. Kepler, for $1.50.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONS AND WORLD RELATIONS

I. PERIODICALS

The International Review of Missions. N. Y.: International Missionary Council. $3 per year. Quarterly.

Missions, An International Baptist Magazine. New York: The American Baptist Convention. $2 per year. Monthly except for July and August.

II. BOOKS

(Reference should be made to earlier issues of the Theological Bibliographies for the listing of older books of lasting value in this field.)

ASHBY, P. H. The Conflict of Religions. Scribner, 1955. $3.50. All religions are now in turmoil; tumultuous world affairs create a new setting for religions and test the inner life of religious institutions. Here is a brief survey of the present situation with a plea for the united approach of all religions to the needs of the age.

EDMAN, V. R. The Light in Dark Ages. Van Kampen, 1949. $4. There are not too many volumes available which attempt to survey the entire story of the mission enterprise of the church. This is one such volume. It is comprehensive in scope, yet sufficiently detailed to point to the important episodes in the record. The author writes from a conservative theological position, so that sometimes the reader takes exceptions to his judgments; but this does not detract from the inclusiveness of the work.

FARMER, H. H. Revelation and Religion. Harper, 1954. $3.50. In this first series of the Gifford Lectures for the year 1950, the Professor of Divinity of the University of Cambridge analyzes the various religions of the world against the standard of a definition of religion set by Christian worship. The book attempts a "theology of religion." It is a thoughtful, careful piece of work which carries with it the assurance that God has been and is at work among men everywhere.

LAMOTT, W. C. Revolution in Missions. Macmillan, 1954. $3.50. Deals with the profound changes now taking place in the mission enterprise of the churches; discusses the reasons for these changes, the direction the changes are taking, and the significance of various enterprises uniting the churches.

LATOURETTE, K. S. Challenge and Conformity. Harper, 1955. $1.75. Deals with the ways in which the churches are facing and meeting the conditions of the age. A fairly brief survey covering the situation in Europe, the United States, and the Orient.

MACNAIR, J. I. Livingstone's Travels. Macmillan, 1954. $4.50. While the story of Livingstone's life has often been told, it bears retelling. This is an account of the journeys Livingstone made. It is composed of excerpts from his own records put together by unobtrusive connecting paragraphs provided by the editor. The volume gives a clear picture of the work Livingstone did, and conveys, in a rather rare way, the spirit and character of the man himself.

PATON, D. M. Christian Missions and the Judgment of God. Allenson, 1953. $1.75. An extended essay on the meaning of contemporary events for the Church of Jesus Christ. The work was prompted by developments in China and is written by one who has had considerable experience there. It probes deeply into the work of missions and the results that have been achieved.

RICCI, MATTHEW. China in the Sixteenth Century, Journals, 1583-1610; tr. by L. J. Gallagher. Random House, 1953. $7.50. These are the journals of Matthew Ricci, the justly famous missionary to China. It is the first English translation of the journals. There is much of instruction, edification, and inspiration in the record Ricci left of the work he did and the devotion he showed to the cause of Christ.

ROUSE, RUTH, and NEILL, S. C. The History of the Ecumenical Movement, 1517-1948. Westminster, 1954. $9. Fifteen of the outstanding ecumenical leaders of our time have contributed sections to this volume. It is a survey of the movements for unity among the churches that have appeared since the Reformation. Over half the volume deals with events since 1910. An excellent and essential bird's eye view of the ecumenical movement to date.

SUNDKLER, BENGT. The Church of South India. Seabury, 1955. $6.75. The history of the formation of the Church of South India. Describes the procedures followed, the difficulties faced, and the decisions reached during the years required for the creation of this great church.

VISSER 'T HOOFT, W. A., ed. The Evanston Report. Harper, 1955. $5. The official report of the Evanston Assembly of the World Council of Churches. Contains the following: the message; the section reports; the committee reports; lists of delegates and member churches; and a brief account of the Assembly meetings. An essential book for all who would keep abreast of the ongoing life of the churches.

WARREN, M. A. C. The Christian Imperative. Scribner, 1955. $3. This book consists of the Kellogg Lectures given at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge by the distinguished secretary of the Church Missionary Society. The mission command of our Lord is interpreted in terms of the present state of the church and the present circumstances in which the church exists.

The World Christian Books. Note should be taken of a series of books which are being prepared under the direction of a committee of which Bishop Stephen Neill is the General Chairman. The series is designed to provide clear statements of subjects within the Christian faith for people in various countries of the world. The books are being written by acknowledged church leaders and are published in English and other languages by the Lutterworth Press. Handled in this country by Association Press for $1.25 per volume. Eight books have already been published:

The Christian's God.
Christian Giving.
Mark's Witness to Jesus Christ.
Christianity and Science.
The Christian as Citizen.
The Christian Character.
Reading the Bible Today.
John's Witness to Jesus.

Readers of this Bulletin will be especially interested in volume 11, Jesus and His People, written by Paul S. Minear.

THE CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

I. PREACHING

A. Periodicals

The Minister's Quarterly. N. Y.: The Department of the Ministry of the Congregational Christian Churches. $.50 per year.

The Pulpit. Chicago: Christian Century Foundation. $3 per year. Monthly.

Pulpit Digest. Great Neck, N. Y. Pulpit Digest Pub. Co. $5 per year. Monthly.

B. Books

Allen, A. V. G. The Life and Letters of Phillips Brooks. Dutton, 1900. o.p. An excellent study of a great parish minister.

Brooks, Phillips. Lectures on Preaching. Dutton, 1877. o.p. A classic full of sound advice.

Butler, G. P., ed. Best Sermons. The many annual editions of this work, now published by Macmillan, provide good examples of many different sermon types. Valuable for case study in preaching.

Buttrick, G. A. Jesus Came Preaching. Scribner, 1932. $2.75. Good in its practical counsel but even better in its sensitive interpretation.

Coffin, H. S. What To Preach. Doran, 1926. o.p. A fine treatment of various types of sermon content.

CURRY, S. S. Vocal and Literary Interpretation of the Bible. Expression, 1923. o.p. The age and difficult style of this book do not prevent it from providing many valuable suggestions on the reading of the Bible.

FAIRBANKS, GRANT. Voice and Articulation Drillbook. Harper, 1940. $2. An extremely valuable book for improving the use of the voice. Articulation, pronunciation, breathing, time, pitch, loudness, quality, and stress are considered with exercises which anyone can practice.

GRAY, G. W., and BRADEN, W. W. Public Speaking. Harper, 1951. $4.50. Here is a thorough, systematic, and realistic presentation of the principles, problems, and processes of effective speech which will provide the foundation for a lifelong improvement of speaking skill.

LUCCOCK, H. E. In the Minister's Workshop. Abingdon, 1944. $2.50. Specific, helpful advice about sermon construction.

II. PUBLIC WORSHIP

COFFIN, H. S. The Public Worship of God. Westminster, 1946. $2.50. An important contribution by one who represents high standards in this field.

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE CONGREGATIONAL AND CHRISTIAN CHURCHES OF THE U. S. A Book of Worship for Free Churches. Oxford Univ., 1948. $1.85.

HAZELTON, ROGER. The God We Worship. Macmillan, 1946. $2. A valuable modern contribution to an old subject by a recognized authority.

HUXTABLE, JOHN [and others]. A Book of Public Worship Compiled for the Use of Congregationalists; 2d ed. Oxford Univ., 1949. $1.40.

MORRISON, J. D. The Minister's Service Book for Pulpit and Parish Use. Harper, 1937. $2.50. A useful collection of services and source materials for worship.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A. General Assembly. The Book of Common Worship. Board of Christian Education of the Church, 1946. $1.75.

SPERRY, W. L. Reality in Worship. Macmillan, 1925. $4. By common agreement this is one of the best single books on worship yet written in this country.

III. POLITY

MAURER, O. E., ed. Manual of the Congregational Christian Churches. Pilgrim, 1947. $2.

McNutt, W. R. Polity and Practice in Baptist Churches. Judson, 1935. $2.25.

IV. CHURCH MUSIC

Bailey, A. E. The Gospel in Hymns. Scribner, 1950. $6. This is the book in this field.

Coleman, Henry. The Amateur Choir Trainer. Oxford Univ., 1932. $1.75. A practical, suggestive book for the non-professional.

Davies, Walford, and Grace, Harvey. Music and Worship. Gray, 1935. $2.50. The outcome of a long experience.

Davison, A. T., and Foote, H. W. The Concord Anthem Book. Schirmer, 1925-36. 3 vols. $2.50 per vol. These anthems are drawn from many sources and represent the noblest schools of church music.

Dickinson, Edward. Music in the History of the Western Church. Scribner, 1902. $4. An authoritative work by an eminent member of the faculty of Oberlin College.

Dickinson, H. A., and Dickinson, Clarence. Antiphons. Gray, 1920. $2.50.

Douglas, Winfred. Church Music in History and Practice. Scribner, 1937. $4.

Ellinwood, Leonard. The History of American Church Music. Morehouse, 1953. $6.

Fillebrown, Thomas. Resonance in Singing and Speaking; 3d ed. Ditson, 1911. $1.50. Small but invaluable.

Foote, H. W. Three Centuries of American Hymnody. Harvard Univ., 1940. o.p.

Smallman, John, and Wilcox, E. H. The Art of a Cappella Singing. Ditson. 1933. $2. Contains instruction for singers in choral groups with analysis of sixteen representative compositions.

Wolfe, P. A., Dickinson, H. A., and Dickinson, Clarence. The Choir Loft and the Pulpit. Gray, 1943. $1.50.

V. CHURCH ADMINISTRATION

A. Periodicals

Church Management. Cleveland, Ohio: Church Management, Inc. $3 per year. Monthly.

B. Books

Brand, N. F., and Ingram, V. M. The Pastor's Legal Advisor. Abingdon, 1942. $2.50. A very practical book covering legal matters affecting the church and the ministry, such as laws of marriage and divorce, laws governing church property, etc.

BRYAN, D. C. Building Church Membership through Evangelism. Abingdon, 1952. $2. The definitive book on visitation evangelism, beyond argument the most effective way of increasing the membership of the church. Dr. Bryan's Texas vocabulary will not fit all communities, but the methods will produce results anywhere. Whether the results are Christian or not depends on whether the church that uses them is Christian.

THE CHRISTIAN CENTURY. Great Churches of America. Chicago: Christian Century Foundation, 1951. A study of the twelve churches picked in a nationwide poll of ministers as the outstanding city, suburban, and rural churches in the nation. Some criticism of these churches comes from real fear of "jumboism"; but much more comes from lazy ministers with the taste of sour grapes in their mouths. The paper-bound book is full of excellent ideas on how a church may be well run.

PENDLETON, O. A. New Techniques for Church Fund Raising. McGraw-Hill, 1955. $5. Correctly billed as the greatest new program for raising money for the church since the discovery of the Every Member Canvass. This is the complete, detailed method for getting either current funds or money for capital expansion. In the hands of a band of committed Christian people it becomes a method of spiritual revival as well as one of financial rejuvenation.

PLEUTHNER, W. A. More Power for Your Church. Farrar, 1952. $3.75. This is the better of the author's two collections of ideas for making the church healthier and wealthier. The fact that the author is a layman, an advertising man, and that the book is introduced by a foreword by Norman Vincent Peale will scare some readers. It is true that some of the ideas are questionable and that some are real "clinkers." But many are excellent suggestions for the church interested in doing its job better.

SWEAZEY, G. E. Effective Evangelism. Harper, 1953. $3.50. The best all-around book on evangelism in print today, by the Minister of Evangelism of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. It covers theological direction and motivation as well as practical methods for "the most important work of the church."

CHRISTIAN ETHICS

BENNETT, J. C. Christian Ethics and Social Policy. Scribner, 1946. $2. A careful if perhaps over-cautious treatment, predominantly critical and analytical in purpose, but covering the main problems in the field.

BONHOEFFER, DIETRICH. Ethics; ed. by Eberhard Bethge; tr. by N. H. Smith. Macmillan, 1955. $4. The German martyr's unfinished but highly suggestive magnum opus, deriving Christian moral responsibility from the Christ-centered nature of the Gospel itself.

BRUNNER, EMIL. The Divine Imperative. Westminster, 1937. $6.50. Probably the greatest work in this field by a living theologian, and one which no thoughtful pastor can afford to miss. It deals profoundly with a host of complicated but important issues.

D'ARCY, M. C. The Mind and Heart of Love. Holt, 1947. $4. This book brings together some of the best Roman Catholic insights on the matter of Christian love in an effort to answer the criticism of Nygren.

NIEBUHR, REINHOLD. The Interpretation of Christian Ethics. Harper, 1935. $2. The book which made "impossible possibility" a slogan in discussions of the Christian ideal of love; Niebuhr's best treatment of the ethical problem.

RAMSEY, PAUL. Basic Christian Ethics. Scribner, 1950. $3.75; text ed., $2.75. A much-needed systematic interpretation of fundamental matters in theory and practice, written by a competent and skilful teacher.

TEMPLE, WILLIAM. Christianity and Social Order. 3d ed. Macmillan, 1950. $1.25. Pertinent, authentic Christian thinking on some vexing questions.

THOMAS, G. F. Christian Ethics and Moral Philosophy. Scribner, 1955. $6. A very rewarding study, comprehensive and incisive, which maintains the needed balance and tension between reason and faith, world and church, "secular" philosophy and Biblical perspective.

SOCIAL ETHICS

BARRON, J. B., and WADDAMS, H. M. Communism and the Churches. Morehouse, 1950. $1. This is a documentary study of the attitude of Communist governments to the churches, with a foreword by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

BOISEN, A. T. Religion in Crisis and Custom. Harper, 1955. $4.

BRADY, R. A. Business as a System of Power. Columbia Univ., 1943. $3.75. An important study of the organization and power of large-scale business enterprises in several nations.

CASSIRER, ERNST. The Myth of the State. Doubleday, 1955. $1.25 in a paperback ed.

DOREY, F. D. Selected Bibliography on Christian Freedom and American Civil Liberties. Prepared for the Civil Liberties Project of the Council for Social Action of the Congregational Christian Churches. May be obtained from the Council, 289 Fourth Avenue, New York 10.

HERBERG, WILL. Catholic, Protestant, and Jew. Doubleday, 1955. $4.

MCKEON, RICHARD, and ROKKAN, STEIN, eds. Democracy in a World of Tensions. Univ. of Chicago, 1951. $7.50. A symposium prepared by UNESCO wherein thirty-four able thinkers examine the ambiguities and divergences in the interpretation of the word "democracy."

MARITAIN, JACQUES. Man and the State. Univ. of Chicago, 1951. $4. Here one of the ablest neo-Thomist thinkers gives his interpretation of the basic principles underlying democracy.

MAVES, P. B., and CEDARLEAF, J. L. Older People and the Church. Abingdon, 1949. $2.50. One of the first serious efforts, from the Christian perspective, to examine one of the major cultural problems of our time — the increase of the life span without an equivalent increase of meaning and satisfaction in old age.

NIEBUHR, REINHOLD. The Self and the Dramas of History. Scribner, 1955. $3.75.

OLDHAM, J. H. Work in Modern Society. Morehouse, 1950. $.85. A booklet which raises basic questions about the bearing of the Christian faith upon the actual decisions which men make in their daily work.

PRIESTLEY, J. B., and PRIESTLEY, J. H. Journey Down a Rainbow. British Book Service, 1955. $3.75. Priestley and his anthropologist wife make a contrapuntal comparative study of some of our Indian tribes, and of some aspects of contemporary culture — the latter coming off second-best.

RIESMAN, DAVID. Individualism Reconsidered. Doubleday, 1955. $.95 in paper cover.

SAME. The Lonely Crowd. Yale Univ., 1950. $5. text ed., $3.75.

SIEGFRIED, ANDRÉ. America at Mid-Century. Harcourt, 1955. $5.75.

THURMAN, HOWARD. Jesus and the Disinherited. Abingdon, 1949. $1.25. A small book filled with insights from one of our most sensitive spirits.

WARNER, W. L., and LUNT, P. S. The Social Life of a Modern Community. Yale Univ., 1941. $4.50. One of the important Yankee Series volumes wherein the pressures of social class are described and examined. A "must" book if the minister wishes to understand some of the factors within which the Gospel must be preached.

WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES. Man's Disorder and God's Design. Harper, 1949. (Amsterdam Assembly Series) 5 vols. o.p. The first four volumes are also bound together. Especially Vol. III, The Church and the Disorder of Society, and Vol. IV, The Church and the International Disorder. These reports summarize some of the deepest insights of contemporary Christians regarding the social responsibility of the church.

DELINQUENCY AND CRIME, AS RELATED TO CHURCH AND COMMUNITY

ABRAHAMSEN, DAVID. Who Are The Guilty? Rinehart, 1953. $5.

CHALMERS, A. K. Bibliography of Penology (Bulletin of the General Theological Library, 53 Mt. Vernon Street, Boston; Vol. XLVIII, No. 2, Jan., 1956).

COHEN, A. K. Delinquent Boys, the Nature of the Gang. Free Press, 1955. $3.50.

EISSLER, K. R., ed. Searchlights on Delinquency. International Universities, 1949. $10.

ELLIOT, M. A. Crime in Modern Society. Harper, 1952. $6.

FINE, BENJAMIN. 1,000,000 Delinquents. World, 1955. $4. A clear appraisal by the Education Editor of the New York Times.

GLUECK, SHELDON, and GLUECK, ELEANOR. Delinquents in the Making. Harper, 1952. $3. A digestible version of the authoritative Unravelling Juvenile Delinquency.

HENTIG, HANS VON. Crime, Its Causes and Conditions. McGraw, 1947. o.p.

KVARACEUS, WILLIAM. The Community and the Delinquent. World, 1954. $4.50. See especially chapter 13, for the role of the church.

LINDNER, R. M. Rebel Without a Cause. Grune, 1944. $5.

TAPPAN, P. W. Juvenile Delinquency. McGraw-Hill, 1949. $6.

VEDDER, C. B., ed. The Juvenile Offender. Doubleday, 1954. $6. The best reference book.

THE RURAL CHURCH

BAILEY, L. H. The Holy Earth. New York: Christian Rural Fellowship, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y., 1943. $.25. A reprint of the earlier work, published in 1915; one of the best interpretations of the soul in the soil.

Brownell, Baker. The Human Community. Harper, 1950. $4. A book on rural sociology written by a leading philosopher who knows the country community first-hand. Very valuable for rural ministers.

The Christian Rural Fellowship Bulletin. New York; The Fellowship, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York 10. Sent to members; four types of membership; apply. Uniformly the best bulletin on the rural life of the world.

Hewitt, A. W. God's Back Pasture. Harper, 1941. $1.75. Problems and opportunities in a country parish.

Lindstrom, D. E. American Rural Life. Ronald, 1948. $4.

Nelson, Lowry. Rural Sociology; 2d ed. American Book, 1955. $4.75. Definitely helpful in the field.

Smith, R. C. The Church in Our Town; rev. ed. Abingdon, 1955. $2.50. Helpful discussion of the rural church in relation to other agencies.

Attention is called to the periodical Town and Country Church published monthly except in summer by the Department of Town and Country Church, Division of Home Missions of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, 297 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y. ($1.50 a year), which is indispensable for keeping up to date in regard to rural religious work; also the numerous excellent pamphlets on many phases by Ralph A. Felton, which are the results of studies under his supervision at Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J. Also recommended are Dumont Clarke's leaflets on The Lord's Acre Plan, which can be obtained from the Farmers' Federation, Asheville, N. C. The reports of the National Convocations on the Church in Town and Country cover many aspects and may be secured from the Committee on Town and Country Church, 297 Fourth Avenue, New York 10, N. Y.
